SUMMER MENU

THE FAMOUS FISH AND CHIPS

To achieve the best Fish and Chips you need:

A mix of North and South.

The art of a good Mushy Pea and the lightness of a homemade batter.

Add the purity of an Icelandic Cod that has only swum in un-polluted water and been allowed to grow and not over-fished.

Rolled in rice cones and deep fried in pure vegetable oil, and you might reach your goal.

At the Bakers we feel we have achieved this:

Large	£15.95	(16 - 20oz)
Medium	£10.95	(8 - 12oz)
Small Goujons	£6.95	(5 to 6 pieces)

HAM, EGG AND CHIPS - £10.95

While visiting York Minster we came across a small tea room with a sign outside saying famous York ham, we tried it and thought it was the best ever - here with 2 eggs and chips.

100% BEEFBURGER - £11.95

When I was in the Royal Navy we docked in Puerto Rico. Opposite was an American burger joint called Black Angus. 100% beef and cooked under a char grill - best ever.

WHOLE RACK OF RIBS - £13.95

In Estepona, Spain, my favourite Argentine called The House of My Grandmother - rack of ribs cooked in a hole in the wall, smothered in BBQ sauce - try ours.

COTTAGE PIE - £10.95

My Grannie used to make this every Monday with leftovers. We make it fresh but to her recipe - robust and filling.

CHICKEN BREAST AND STILTON

TAGLIATELLE - £11.95

We finished Blackjack in Monte Carlo Casino and stumbled into a little Italian just off The Square - the owner suggested this dish - an absolute delight.

LASAGNE - £10.95

When at the Straford, Wakefield, met a 4ft, 8in Italian - the dog was bigger than him - but he gave a recipe for a Sicilian lasagne and have used it ever since.

PORK FILLET MEDALLIONS WITH PEPPERCORN SAUCE - £12.95

Went to a food exhibition in London, Keith Floyd was pan frying these with a creamy green peppercorn sauce - a not too heavy dish.

FRESH SALMON, PARSLEY AND CORIANDER FISHCAKES - £10.95

I was on H.M.S. Hecla surveying around The Isle of Skye. Our favourite pub in Portree served these made from fresh Scottish Salmon - perfect flavours.

TEMPURA KING PRAWNS - £10.95

I first came across this dish in the Pink Palace Hotel in Bermuda as a bar snack by the pool - served with crispy salad and sweet chilli dip.

CHICKEN AND BACON CEASER SALAD - £11.95

I was invited to a garden party in Atlanta, Georgia. There were 200+ guests and the largest bowl of Ceaser Salad I have ever seen - it left a great impression.

TUNA STEAK WITH LIME, BUTTER AND CAPERS - £11.95

The Mandarin Hotel in Hong Kong pan fries the tuna steak at your table with a dash of fresh lime, melted butter and capers with a French dressed salad, almost no calories.

DUCK CONFIT - £12.95

My favourite French dish - a French classic slow cooked in its own juices and served with a port jus.

VEGETARIAN DISHES

GOATS CHEESE WITH HONEY AND WALNUTS SALAD - £9.95

I found this on a mezze menu in Cyprus. It is light and the flavours mix like a summers night.

MUSHROOM STROGONOFF - £10.95

On a visit to the Ural Mountains, I was invited to lunch by a local Sybirian farmer. His wife served up a bowl of this herbs paprika and mushrooms with rice.

MACARONI CHEESE - £9.95

I remember my days at boarding school. We had this three times a week, we use mature cheddar which gives it a stronger flavour.

VEGETARIAN BURGER - £9.95

In the early days of Glastonbury Festival, the nearest food outlet to my tent was a veggie wagon - spent all weekend eating these.

PANINI

BACON, REDCURRENT JELLY AND BRIE PANINI - £7.50

Casino crawling in France, we found ourselves starving in the casino in Dinard at 2am - this dish was on the all night menu, and it was a life saver.

SIMPLE CHEESE AND TOMATO - £5.50

Somerset farmworkers staple lunch - sometimes you just want something simple - fresh tomato and mature Cheddar.

TUNA WITH LEMON MAYO - £6.50

Relaxing in the sun drenched beach of Barbados - nothing too filling, perfect with a rum punch.

HOME COOKED HAM AND CHUTNEY - £7.50

A true Wiltshire dish, with a cool pint of cider - home cooked ham and onion chutney.

BASKET MEALS

CHICKEN FILLETS - £8.50

A bar in Breton, France serves these freshly rolled in garlic bread crumbs. Ours are a simpler version with chillip dip.

BRIE WEDGES - £7.50

These came into fasion in the early 90's when we were at The Bear in Marlborough - great with redcurrent jelly.

BREADED SCAMPI - £8.50

At any night club in the 70's this would be the midnight snack served with lemon and tartare.

MOZZERELLA STICKS - £7.50

The sign of the times, never heard of these until the 21st century - but they are very popular.

EXTRAS

GARLIC BREAD - £3.50
